This Report of the Michigan Court System for the calendar year 1993 is respectfully transmitted to the citizens of Michigan. It summarizes in one volume the highlights of the judicial workload and, we hope, furthers the understanding of the services provided by dedicated judges, court personnel, and the many citizens who work with and for the improvement of Michigan's courts.

Statewide statistical information by jurisdiction is contained in this report. In addition, a statistical supplement providing more detailed information for each of the 243 trial courts is available in a separate volume.

I take this opportunity to thank all Michigan judges, court personnel, other agencies who work with the judicial branch, and most of all, the Michigan public, for their support of the Michigan Judiciary.

Sincerely,

Marilyn K Hall

State of the Judiciary Message

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY

Chief Justice Michael F. Cavanagh
May 5, 1994

Thank you very much. Lieutenant Governor Binsfeld, Reverend Monsignor Murray, Co-Speakers Hertel and Hillegonds, Majority Leader Posthumus, Members of the House and Senate, my colleagues on the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, Secretary of State Austin.

It is a great honor to come here today to report to you on the state of Michigan's judicial branch. I first must thank you and your leadership for recognizing the importance of communication between the branches of government, and thus for summoning today's special session. I would like to extend my special appreciation to the Co-Clerks of the House, Mel DeStigter and David Evans, and to the Secretary of the Senate, Willis Snow, for their efforts with my staff in making this event possible.

In addition to the many legislators who are with us this morning, I also wish to acknowledge the representatives of the executive branch. Also present in the gallery are many of Michigan's trial judges, of whose hard work we are so proud, and officers of their associations. I am especially pleased to see some former Justices of the Supreme Court, including Chief Justice Thomas E. Brennan, Chief Justice John W. Fitzgerald, and Justice Theodore Souris. I also welcome former Chief Judge Robert J. Danhof of the Court of Appeals with whom I had the privilege of serving on that court.

There is another person whom we should recognize today. At the end of 1994, our bench will lose of one of Michigan's great public servants. For nearly forty years you have served Michigan as a Member of Congress, a United States Senator, and a Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court . . . you are the pride of Traverse City and Central Michigan University . . . Bob Griffin, your place is assured in the history of this state. My colleagues and I feel proud and privileged to have served with you.

Finally, as a point of personal privilege, I want to take this opportunity to recognize some people whose love and support I have enjoyed and who have in that way contributed to the judicial system in which I have been privileged to serve.

Last Saturday, April 30th, marked the opening day of trout season. It also happened to be my 28th wedding anniversary. I wish to introduce the woman who has tolerated me and the trout for all those years my wife Patricia. As living evidence of the havoc we have wrought during our 28 years of marriage, I would introduce our children Jane Elizabeth, Michael, and Megan Kathleen. My big brother, Paul Cavanagh, retired after many years of service with the Department of Public Health Crippled Children's Division, is here with me, as he always has been. His wife Shirley and several of my nephews and nieces are here as well. Thanks to all of you for attending.

Twenty-five years ago, on May 1, 1969, Chief Justice Brennan came here to present the first State of the Judiciary address. As I read his address in the House Journal, I was struck by the changes we have seen in a quarter of a century.

In 1969, Chief Justice Brennan spoke enthusiastically of new developments which today are part of the accepted status quo. He praised the Legislature for overcoming "many obstacles" in establishing the district court; he described a requirement of annual reports from judges regarding the status of cases; he spoke of new court rules to manage the discipline process for lawyers; he discussed the newly-created Judicial Tenure Commission. Together, we have come a great distance.

We have far to go, however. Years from now, one of your children will stand in my place, directing a multimedia, interactive presentation on the State of the Judiciary, with holograms and sound effects. I wonder: How much will have changed by then? How much will be the same?

So let me tell you where we are today and where, with your assistance, we are headed.

My friends, those of us who serve as judges know that a court is a special place. Francis Bacon said that "The place of justice is a hallowed place." We wear robes as a sign of an authority that traces its roots to the Old Testament. But we also wear robes to remind us that the source of our authority is not within ourselves. It comes from the people, who briefly entrust it to our care.

And it is the people who breathe life into the courts. They do so through their belief that the courts can and do provide justice. Though we live in a skeptical age, the words "Equal Justice Under Law" are no idle phrase. Justice Thurgood Marshall had supporters and he had opponents, but when he died last year, no cynic was bold enough to doubt the sincerity of that judge's lifelong quest for Justice for all Americans.

The people also invigorate the courts every day through the jury system. Juries are the clearest day-to-day illustration of the central defining principle of this great nation--the people are the government. Citizens don't just observe the courts; as jurors they are the courts. They appear day after day, year after year, for minimal compensation, to provide extraordinary civic service. Jurors bring humanity, life itself, to the law.

Despite all of that, the Judiciary is often referred to as the third branch of government. Most of our work goes unnoticed by the media, since our primary focus is on the resolution of disputes between individual litigants, few of whom are among the rich and famous. But today, I'd like to tell you why, as we approach the year 2000, no branch can be the first branch of government, or the second, or the third.

One reason that the courts have been seen as the third branch is that our work takes place third in time. You make the laws; you establish the public institutions; you give definition and order to society. Only then do we implement and enforce the laws you have written.

Yet this task is certainly not third in importance. Though each of the three branches of government employs different procedures and is directly responsive to different interests, there exists a common goal.

You are legislators. Great controversies stir the public soul and you address them. You legislate. And so you have made decisions regarding school financing, regarding adoption, regarding malpractice law, regarding no-fault insurance, regarding the allocation of this state's financial resources. In the weeks and months to come, you will consider matters such as assisted suicide, reforms in the punishment and release of criminal offenders, and the manner in which custody and support problems are addressed by our Friend of the Court offices.

Yet during the same time, we in the Judiciary also have faced these challenges. The judges of this state have made wrenching decisions concerning children and families; have addressed issues such as assisted suicide; have processed new malpractice cases and considered issues related to no-fault legislation; and have shepherded their own scarce financial resources. In the months ahead, we will face in different forms all the same great questions that you have seen.

Everyone here knows Tip O'Neill's aphorism, "All politics is local." I can tell you today that "all justice is individual."

The greatest controversies to reach our Supreme Court, even the most famous cases at the United States Supreme Court, are still, in the main, just disputes between individual human beings. You've seen Henry Fonda and Jose Ferrer in Gideon's Trumpet. Well, the question for the United States Supreme Court in Gideon v Wainwright was simply whether one poor man named Clarence Earl Gideon could be imprisoned by the State of Florida for five years without the opportunity to have a lawyer. In Brown v Board of Education, the United States Supreme Court was asked whether a little girl named Linda Brown had the right to enroll in an ordinary public school in Topeka, Kansas.

Here in Michigan, our courts do the same thing. We solve problems the old-fashioned way--one person at a time. A district judge searching for guilt or innocence; a probate judge wrestling with an adoption case, a circuit judge hearing a volatile domestic-relations matter--each is listening to an individual, and each will offer a real answer to a real problem.

At the Supreme Court, we do the same, whether in the context of a tax case like Caterpillar, or a school financing case like Schmidt, or even your apportionment litigation. Each of these matters directly affects individual citizens.

As legislators, you hold hearings and gather information from all who wish to address you. You then enact legislation governing the whole citizenry, not individuals. Our problem-solving technique is the reverse. We decide individual cases, one by one. Our decisions are based on the record in the particular case before us, and only indirectly do our rulings apply to others.

Thus, while the Legislature and the Judiciary employ very different means, our functions are not opposed. Rather our roles are complementary, as we seek the same objective--justice.

When we recognize our fundamental sameness as servants of the people, we can perform our separate roles with purpose, and without acrimony. We can honor our differences, remembering why we are separate, and respecting--not resenting--our distinct authority.

We who have no power to appropriate do not and must not expect you to fund us without giving you a coherent explanation of our needs. And you, who have the exclusive power to enact laws, must understand that when the Judiciary construes a statute it is not seeking to infringe on your domain. When two parties propose different meanings for the language you have enacted, we cannot avoid the question, or send the litigants back to you for an answer. You completed your work when you passed the legislation. Our work is to locate your intended meaning in the context of a particular factual setting.

So when, inevitably, we sometimes disagree about the fiscal needs of the Judiciary, or when you find fault with the manner in which we have construed a statute, let our disagreements be phrased in language that respects both the necessity of our separate roles and our sameness as servants of the people of Michigan. The rhetoric of the campaign trail_the battle of credit and blame_should have no place in the discourse between the branches of government.

My purpose in coming before you today is to emphasize that the branches of Michigan government must take specific steps to understand each other better, and to work more closely together. The Court understands, though, that we first must do all that we can, on our own, to make the courts a friendly and efficient environment for the resolution of disputes.

Last summer, the Court revised the court rules and ethical standards to assure that men and women of all races and social classes will be treated fairly, with courtesy and respect.

Earlier in 1993, the Court completed a sweeping revision of its domestic relations rules, so that divorces and child-custody matters can be handled swiftly and with as little pain as the difficult nature of these cases will allow.

Together with a Senate committee, we are reviewing how best to provide court interpreter services to persons who are not native speakers of English, as well as to the hearing impaired. This effort involves both persons who function as interpreters, and new technologies such as real-time computerized transcription.

We are also working with local courts to maximize compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, within the tight budgetary constraints found in so many localities.

Our Telecourt system provides quick and convenient answers for citizens who have questions about our legal system. These answers are delivered in Plain English--a new dialect we are trying to master_and they have helped lift the shroud of mystery and confusion that too often surrounds the legal system.

Our State Court Administrator's Office remains active on countless fronts, working directly with our judges, and with a host of other private and public agencies, searching for ways to better serve the people of this state.

In all the nation, no organization is better than our Michigan Judicial Institute at providing continuing education for judges and court staff. We expect all court personnel to be helpful and well-informed, and the Judicial Institute is central to that objective.

We have begun an exciting and important dialogue with Michigan's tribal courts. Through the efforts of the State Court/Tribal Court Forum and in subsequent conversations, we and tribal officials are exploring further opportunities for cooperation with Michigan tribes.

The Attorney Discipline Board, Attorney Grievance Commission, and Board of Law Examiners each plays a critical role in helping Michigan lawyers maintain the highest ethical standards. With your help and with the help of the State Bar, we have doubled the commitment of funds used to protect the public from the small minority of lawyers who fail to honor their obligations to clients and the public.

We are also proud of the energy with which the whole judicial system monitors its own compliance with the high ethical standards that you and other Michigan citizens properly expect of us. In different ways, the State Court Administrator's Office and the Judicial Tenure Commission both oversee the performance of Michigan courts and judges, to assure prompt and fair treatment of litigants, witnesses, jurors, and everyone else who enters our courts.

Much of what the Court has been able to accomplish is due to the outstanding leadership and vision of the State Bar of Michigan. I want to extend a personal note of thanks to State Bar President Jon Muth, and to his predecessors with whom I have dealt in an atmosphere of cooperation and mutual respect. The State Bar of Michigan enjoys a national reputation that is second to none. This is directly attributable to the outstanding commitment and effort of its able Director, Mike Franck. Mike has announced his plan to retire as Executive Director, and we wish him all the best.

As our courts race toward the 21st Century, we remain committed to a pattern of action, not reaction. You recall that the Legislature commissioned a report on the Courts in the 21st Century in 1990. Since that time, a number of our courts have been participating in pilot programs to share personnel and resources. We will continue to explore with you the structure of the court system and the division of work among the trial courts. And we will continue to use our authority to assign judges where they are needed, in order to facilitate the prompt delivery of justice.
Throughout this year and the next, the State Court Administrator's Office will be engaged in strategic planning. We are undertaking a thorough review of our own mission, and that of all Michigan courts. Without wavering in our commitment to a justice system that is fair, accessible, and effective, we will remain flexible and open to new methods of fulfilling that commitment.

We have done much on our own. However, there are a great many areas in which improvements can only come from joint efforts with you. Think about one example--Michigan's Friend of the Court system.

The successes are undeniable. Our child support guidelines have brought order and fairness to the process of determining support obligations.

Likewise, we have achieved remarkable success in the collection of child support payments from noncustodial parents. Indeed, during nearly every year that such statistics have been kept, Michigan has ranked first in the nation--both in total dollars collected and in collecting the highest percentage of the dollars that judges have ordered to be paid. Michigan Friend of the Court offices accomplish this feat while performing a host of other duties concerning visitation and custody enforcement--tasks required by statute here in Michigan.

Yet we have been listening at the same hearings as you. We have heard the complaints and the voices raised, urging new approaches_to aid both custodial and noncustodial parents, and most importantly, to protect the welfare of the children.

In the months to come, we must work together to locate better ways of responding to the needs of these citizens. We have an excellent system in Michigan, but we've been reminded that excellence remains at that level only through constant advancements. Together, let us institute those improvements.

We also need to work together on fair financing for all of Michigan's courts. We applaud you and we thank you for last year's efforts to commit court-generated revenue for court purposes. You have set a 31.5% floor for state support of local courts, and you have directed that needed funds be made available for the Court of Appeals, for the State Court Administrative Office, and to provide Legal Aid in civil matters for the poor. Your recent debates on this subject evidence your continued interest, and your desire to effect a more equitable funding structure.

Working closely with you on this issue, we continue to assess the proper balance for the sharing of costs between local and state funding sources. Decisions by local officials affect the caseload of a court, and so it may be sensible to maintain a link between local policies and the costs incurred locally. At the same time, all of Michigan's citizens have the right to receive equal justice. Adequate resources must be available to the courts of this state without regard to the community or county in which they sit.

This address is not an occasion for telling you how to finance Michigan courts. Rather, I wish to say that we have accomplished much together, and that we need to maintain the cooperative spirit that has allowed this progress.

As you think about court financing, remember your other experiences with difficult funding issues. This is not the first time that you have been asked to take a system of mixed state and local financing, balance the objective of statewide equality of opportunity against the sound desire for local control, and effect substantial reforms.

Think of your other recent accomplishments. It is said that there is nothing new under the sun. But you have created something entirely new in this House of Representatives--a joint leadership agreement. If Democratic and Republican legislators, formal opponents by definition, can share responsibility and authority, surely the legislative and judicial branches can tackle our common problems with grace and cooperation.
Let us remember these lessons as we continue our combined efforts on court financing.

A staple of speeches on the American court system is a passage in which the speaker recounts the shocking rise in court filings. You already know the staggering numbers. You know that in 1990, our courts received 4.2 million cases generated by Michigan's 9.3 million citizens and 22,000 police personnel. You can do the arithmetic. It shows that Michigan courts disposed of over 2,000 cases every hour.

You also know that the tide continues to rise, and that every single case entering our system is of overwhelming importance to the individual citizens involved. Yet our resources have not--and, in truth, probably cannot--fully keep pace.

Each of you has heard also that our Court of Appeals judges have the heaviest appellate workload of any state court in the nation--that each judge of the Michigan Court of Appeals has a caseload that is more than double the average caseload of a judge at a comparable court.

In dealing with these realities, there are, again, measures that we can take alone. Working with the Court of Appeals, and aided by the State Bar's Task Force on the Appellate Courts, we have taken a number of steps to help that court reduce its backlog. Additional panels have been created for the Court of Appeals, using both appellate and trial court judges, and they are hearing cases in several Michigan cities, even as we gather this morning.

But your help remains essential. In particular, your continued support will be needed for the Court of Appeals. At the Supreme Court, our most pressing need is to bring together in one place all our personnel and resources, presently scattered around Lansing in half a dozen state buildings and rented offices. To manage our system well into the 21st Century, we need a single functional building. The State Bar has expressed its support and its commitment to this building effort, but legislative backing will also be crucial.

Understand what I am saying. I am not talking about the Legislature and the Judiciary working together just so that you can write more and bigger checks for us. The cooperation must precede and extend beyond the appropriation process.

What you do affects us every day. You decide what is a crime in this state, and what the penalty should be. You enact the statutes that form our civil law. These decisions are yours to make. But your actions send a ripple throughout state government.

We have all watched the budget for the Department of Corrections pass $1 billion per year, and keep right on going, with no sign of slowing down. Where do those prisoners come from? They come from the courts. Several times in recent years you have provided large percentage increases to the Department of Corrections while furnishing the courts with little or no additional resources. We are all part of one justice system_you cannot expect more police to arrest more criminals and fill more prison beds while passing through the same courts with the same amount of staff. It cannot happen.

Countless other legislative actions have added to the workload of the courts. Our trial courts must report more offenses to the Secretary of State, including some drug offenses that are unconnected to driving. When licensed professionals are convicted of certain crimes, we must transmit conviction records to the Department of Commerce. We must adjudicate drunk driving cases within a specified time frame. We must collect, process, and transmit secondary road patrol traffic ticket surcharges, crime victim assessments and restitution, Department of Public Health fees for acknowledgment of paternity, and forensic lab fees. We must transmit funds to the state for inclusion in certain retirement funds. We must facilitate the entry of probation conditions on the police computer network, and the correction of these records when the conditions are removed. Our Friends of the Court are now required to be much more involved in the mechanics of collecting child support, even when the noncustodial parent is already meeting his or her obligations. And many new offenses and new causes of action are being litigated in our courts.

I am not here today to tell you that you have acted unwisely in any of these matters. However, I am here to remind you that the three branches form one government. If the courts of this state are to keep pace, then we must be provided with resources and personnel for the increased tasks. Our only alternative is to make the difficult determination of which present court services to discontinue.

As a further illustration, remember Governor Engler's State of the State address. He reported that six new prisons and two new camps have opened, and that 28,000 outstanding felony warrants will be served. He also pledged that 270 new troopers will be patrolling the state, and that more criminals will spend more time in prison through abolition of parole and of disciplinary credits for certain offenders.

These are policy decisions for you and the Governor. Some of these recommendations have already come before you, and some remain for your consideration. As you decide whether to embrace these measures, remember that the full cost is not reflected in the budget lines for the agencies directly affected. Each of these changes will affect the court system. We will continue to cooperate with the Legislature and the Governor in their efforts to reduce crime and make Michigan safer. And we will continue to advise you of the cost of this effort to the judicial branch, so that you can support our part of the effort, as well.

Last summer, Michigan had the opportunity to participate in the National Conference on the Crisis in America's System of Justice. The conference had several themes, but I was particularly struck by three things. First, this was not just about a "crisis in the courts." The crisis extends to agencies throughout government, including those of the legislative and executive branches.

Second, the problems do not lie exclusively in the realm of criminal law. As we have seen in our own state, many of the most pressing concerns of the people lie in areas of civil law, such as domestic relations and family law, and business litigation.

Third, it is essential that teams be formed, from all branches of government, to pursue workable solutions. I was proud that our Michigan delegation included representatives from the Governor's office, the Legislature, the courts, the practicing bar, and the business community. We also had local involvement as we were joined by then-County Commissioner Lynne Martinez, who only last week was sworn in as a member of this House of Representatives.

Joint efforts mark the road down which we must travel. Through cooperative effort, we can assure that the courts are able to move swiftly. And, more importantly, we can assure that the courts are able to slow down and attend properly to each individual's case. Our efforts to add timeliness cannot ignore fundamental due process.

People expect the courts to provide our most basic offering--a hearing. People want to be heard. And while many have the ability to speak quickly, it takes time to listen. Belief in our system of justice is central to the maintenance of our society. To preserve that confidence, we must have the resources, as well as the energy and creativity, to give each person a real hearing.

Effective sharing of scarce resources so that every case can be heard timely and properly--that was the goal of those participating in the conference on the crisis in the justice system. It is also the task we must address with you.

If we are to work more effectively with each other, we each need to have better information. For our part, we have begun preparing and supplying Judicial Impact Statements, to enable you to gauge the effect that new laws will have on the courts. We understand that you need our comments before legislation is passed, and the Court is committed to providing you with information you need to do your work.

However, a continuing obstacle to that effort is the often limited information we have concerning the workload and resources of local jurisdictions. We have made great strides in this regard, and last year's court-financing legislation was possible, in part, because we were able to provide you with more accurate figures than ever before. But this is an area in which your continued support is necessary.

I have spoken to you today about the relationship between legislative and judicial efforts. Yet, as we all know, the connecting web extends much farther. Just as your work and ours are connected, so do the decisions made in each branch affect citizens throughout the state.

Remember that it is individuals who come to our courts. They are the ones who will bear the burden if we fail to work effectively together. The child who may wait and wait for the Solomonic decision regarding which adult will have custody, the police officer who may see the arrested person dance away from an overcrowded prison or jail, the battered spouse for whom judicial aid may come one day too late, the businessperson whose assets may remain too long in jeopardy pending the outcome of a civil case--they are the ones who will tell us if we fail our shared responsibilities.

We have so much to do in the years to come. We must explore alternative dispute resolution, so citizens have choices other than litigation. We need to continue our efforts to be responsive to diverse constituencies_not only those defined by race and gender, but also groups such as the handicapped and persons who speak languages other than English. And there are other persons whose needs we must remember--the business community, the victims of crime, and the poor. Juvenile law will continue to present great challenges. So will all forms of family law. As we move into the next century, an aging population may shift the focus of our caseload or require other innovative responses. The whole area of criminal law, including police practices, sentencing, corrections, and release practices will continue to challenge all of us. And each of us needs to be ready for a wild ride through the coming world of information and communication technology.

So let's plan together, and let's get to know each other better. Our 611 judges and 8000 court employees extend a warm welcome to each of you. Please come visit our courts whenever you can. Talk with our judges, and see how the courts handle the colossal workloads placed on them by modern society.

In closing, I am reminded of a speech that United States Supreme Court Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes delivered to the Congress on the occasion of its 150th anniversary. That was 55 years ago, but its theme parallels what I have attempted to suggest to you today. Chief Justice Hughes said to the Congress:

" In thus providing the judicial establishment, and in equipping and sustaining it, you have made possible the effective functioning of the department of government which is designed to safeguard with judicial impartiality and independence the interests of liberty. But in the great enterprise of making democracy workable we are all partners. One member of our body politic cannot say to another: 'I have no need of thee.' We work in successful cooperation by being true, each department to its own functions, and all to the spirit which pervades our institutions, exalting the processes of reason, seeking through the very limitations of power the promotion of the wise use of power, and finding the ultimate security of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and the promise of continued stability and rational progress in the good sense of the American people."

Ladies and Gentlemen, what is the state of Michigan courts? Excellent--the best in all the land. Yet we face many challenges, both today and tomorrow. We look forward to working with you in the exciting years ahead.

THE SUPREME COURT

The Michigan Supreme Court is the highest court in the state, hearing cases appealed to it from other state courts. Applications for "leave to appeal" are filed with the Supreme Court and the court decides whether to grant them. If an application is granted, the Supreme Court will hear the case; if denied, the decision of the lower court stands.

In addition to its judicial duties, the Supreme Court is charged with general administrative supervision of all courts in the state. This is referred to in the State Constitution as "general superintending control." The Supreme Court is responsible for establishing rules for practice and procedure in all courts.

The Supreme Court consists of seven justices--the Chief Justice and six Associate Justices. One justice is selected every two years by the court as Chief Justice. Two justices are elected every two years (one in the eighth year) in the November election. Although nominated by political parties, the justices are elected on a nonpartisan ballot, separate from the ballot for other elective offices. Candidates for the Supreme Court must be qualified electors, licensed to practice law in Michigan, and at the time of election must be under 70 years of age. The salary of the justices is fixed by the State Officers Compensation Commission and paid by the state.

Sessions of the Supreme Court are held in Lansing where the justices hear oral arguments by attorneys in cases in which leave to appeal has been granted and which have been submitted in written briefs in advance of the hearing. The written opinion in each case, which receives the approval of a majority of the Justices, becomes the decision of the Court. A justice may write a "concurring" opinion agreeing with the result of the majority opinion but for different reasons from those expressed in the majority opinion. If a justice disagrees with the majority opinion in whole or in part, the justice may write the reasons for the disagreement in a "dissenting" opinion.

The State Court Administrator, appointed by the justices, performs administrative duties assigned by the Court. The position is established in the State Constitution.

The workload at the Michigan Supreme Court continues to be a heavy one. During 1993 there were 2,749 new cases filed with the Michigan Supreme Court. This represents an 13.3% increase from the previous year (see Figure 1.1). There were 2,516 cases completed in 1993, an decrease of 5.6% over the previous year (see Figure 1.2). At the close of the year there were 1,350 cases pending before the court (see Figure 1.3).

The majority of the new cases filed (96.7%) were Applications for Leave and prisoners' letter requests for review (see Table 1.1). Of the new cases filed, 38.3% were civil cases and 61.7% criminal cases (see Table 1.2). Of the 2,516 cases disposed of during 1993, 2,201(87.5%) were disposed of by Denial of Leave to Appeal, 182 (7.2%) by Final Orders without Opinions, 90(3.6%) by Opinions, and 43 (1.7%) by Dismissal or Withdrawal (see Table 1.3).

Motions And Separate Orders

During 1993 the Court issued 570 separate additional orders on motion matters as follows: 85 orders granting leave to appeal; 14 orders on motions for rehearing; 200 orders on motions for reconsideration; 52 orders holding cases in abeyance, issued on the Court's own motions; 65 miscellaneous orders on motions for bail, for stay of proceedings, to tax or not tax costs, etc.; 145 orders issued by the Chief Justice, here commonly called "housekeeping orders," e.g., orders on motions to extend the time for filing briefs, to place on or withdraw a case from a session calendar, or for oral argument, etc.;and 9 orders to show cause.

Grants of Leave To Appeal

Orders granting leave to appeal serve as notification to parties that formal review of the case will be undertaken. Grant orders and their percentage relationship to new filings for the past six years are displayed in Table 1.4.

Administrative Work

The Court's constitutional responsibility for "general superintending control over all courts" requires it to meet on a regular basis to consider court rules and other matters relating to the administration of the court system. In 1993 the Court met on administrative matters on 39 occasions and acted upon 138 agenda items including appointments to committees, boards, and commissions; review of local court rules and administrative orders; and the internal procedures of the Court. Those actions resulted in the issuance of 44 court orders which included Court Rules changes and appointments.

THE COURT OF APPEALS

The 1963 State Constitution established the Court of Appeals as an "intermediate" appellate court between the lower courts and the Supreme Court. Jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals is established by state law, but its practice and procedure is governed by Supreme Court Rules.

Judges of the Court of Appeals are chosen in nonpartisan elections from three districts drawn on county lines. The districts are as nearly as possible of equal population. The Legislature may increase the number of judges and alter the districts from which they are elected by changing the state law. A candidate for the Court of Appeals must be a lawyer, under 70 years of age, a qualified elector, and a resident of the district in which the candidate is running.

Court of Appeals judges are elected for six-year terms. Their salaries are set by the Legislature. Every two years a chief judge is selected by the Court of Appeals judges. In addition to hearing cases, the chief judge performs administrative duties and other assignments required by the Supreme Court.

Panels of Court of Appeals judges hear cases in Lansing, Detroit, Grand Rapids, and Marquette. The panels are rotated to encourage statewide uniformity in rulings by eliminating the likelihood of conflicting legal philosophies developing in specific geographical areas. The procedure for hearing cases is similar to that of the Supreme Court. The decision of a panel of the Court of Appeals is final except in those cases which the Supreme Court reviews.

The Court of Appeals hears civil and criminal cases. Persons convicted of criminal offenses have an appeal as a matter of right under the State Constitution, if filed in compliance with the court rules.

Activities and Workload

In 1993 there were 12,494 cases filed with the Court of Appeals. This represents a decrease of 6.4% over the 13,352 cases filed in 1992 and a 138.1% increase over the 5,248 cases filed in 1978 (see Figure 2.1).

In 1993 the Court of Appeals disposed of 13,037 cases. This represents an increase of 11.8 % over the 11,662 cases disposed in 1992 and a 164.1% increase over the number of cases disposed in 1978 (see Figure 2.2). In 1993, 52.1% (6,797) of the dispositions were by order and 47.9% (6,240) were by opinion (see Table 2.1).

The average number of cases filed in the Court of Appeals per judge has increased over the years. In 1993 there was an average of 520.6 cases filed per judge while in 1965 there were only 137.2 filings per judge (see Figure 2.3 and Table 2.2). The number of judges increased from 9 in 1965, to 12 in 1969, to 18 in 1975, and to the current 24 in 1989.

The averages of new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of visiting judges to the court. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 11

"The state shall be divided into judicial circuits along county lines in each of which there shall be elected one or more circuit judges as provided by law. Sessions of the circuit court shall be held at least four times in each year in every county organized for judicial purposes. Each circuit judge shall hold court in the county or counties within the circuit in which he is elected, and in other circuits as may be provided by rules of the supreme court. The number of judges shall be changed and circuits shall be created, altered and discontinued on recommendation of the supreme court to reflect changes in judicial activity. No change in the number of judges or alteration or discontinuance of a circuit shall have the effect of removing a judge from office during his term."

CIRCUIT COURT

The state is divided into judicial circuits along county lines. The number of judges within a circuit is established by the legislature to accommodate required judicial activity. In multi-county circuits, judges travel from one county to another to hold court sessions.

The circuit court is the trial court of general jurisdiction in Michigan because of its very broad powers. The circuit court has jurisdiction over all actions except those given by state law to another court. Generally speaking, the circuit court has original jurisdiction in all civil cases involving more than $10,000, in all criminal cases where the offense involves a felony or certain serious misdemeanors, and in all domestic relations cases, including divorce and paternity actions.

The circuit court also hears cases appealed from lower courts and from some administrative agencies of state government. In addition, the circuit court has superintending control over other courts within the judicial circuit, subject to final superintending control of the Supreme Court.

The Recorder's court is a special court, established in 1857, which has jurisdiction in all felony criminal cases arising within the City of Detroit. During 1986, the Recorder's Court and 3rd Circuit Court began an "administrative unification" in which all felony cases in Wayne county are tried in Recorder's court facilities. On a rotating basis, five Wayne county circuit judges are assigned to the Recorder's court. This program allows additional judges to be assigned to hear civil cases in Wayne county.

Circuit judges are elected for terms of six years in non-partisan elections. A candidate must be a qualified elector, a resident of the judicial circuit, a lawyer and under 70 years of age. The legislature sets salaries for circuit judges, which may be supplemented by counties.

Circuit Court Activities

There were 237,241 new cases filed in Michigan circuit courts in 1993. Of these new cases, 10,707 (4.5%) were appeals, 106,398 (44.8%) involved domestic relations, 60,317 (25.4%) concerned civil matters,59,279(25.0%) concerned criminal matters, and 540 (0.2%) were court of claims cases (see Figure 3.1).

Between 1992 and 1993 total new cases filed increased by 0.5% (1,095). Appeals cases decreased by 1.1% (-114), domestic relations actions increased by 2.3% (2,376), civil cases decreased by 1.6% (-963), criminal cases decreased by 0.2% (-108), and court of claims cases decreased by15.1% (-96).

The majority of the appeals filed, 6,904 or 64.5%, concerned state agency decisions (see Figure 3.2). Nine point five percent (9.5%), or 1,013, concerned civil matters, 739 or 6.9% concerned criminal matters, and 2,051 or 19.2% sought extraordinary writs. Criminal appeals decreased by 6.6%, extraordinary writs decreased 4.7%, state agency decision appeals increased 2.2%, and civil appeals decreased 8.1%.

Of the 106,398 domestic relations filings, the majority, 53,945 or 50.7%, involved divorce, 13,677 or 12.9% were support actions, 26,466 or 24.9% involved paternity, 4,385 or 4.1% involved Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Action (URESA), and 7,925 or 7.4% involved other matters (see Figure 3.3). The majority of the divorce cases involved marriages with children (55.1%) while 44.9% involved no children. Between 1992 and 1993 new divorce cases remained relatively stable (increasing 0.6%). Paternity cases increased by 6.4%. URESA cases decreased by 5.1%, support cases decreased by 0.5%, and other cases increased by 10.1%.

Forty-seven percent, 28,349 (47.0%), of the 60,317 civil filings were general civil cases while 50.4% or 30,416 involved tort claims, and 1,552 or 2.6% involved other issues (see Figure 3.4). Of the tort claims, 13,478 or 44.3% concerned automobile negligence. Compared to 1992, tort claim filings increased by 5.5% while civil suits (other category) decreased by 14.0%. General civil cases decreased by 7.6%.

Ninety one point nine percent (91.9%) or 54,487 of the 59,279 criminal filings involved non-capital offenses and 4,792 or 8.1% involved capital offenses (see Figure 3.5). Between 1992 and 1993 capital criminal cases decreased by 1.3% (-65) and non-capital criminal cases decreased by 0.1% (-46).

Region III	26,656	29	919.2

The average number of new filings per judge on a statewide basis in 1993 was 1,140.6 (see Table 3.1 for regional information and Table 3.4 for individual court detail).

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements, including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, or travel to multiple court locations. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

Between 1989 and 1993, circuit court filings increased by 18,437 (8.4%). Five year trends in new filings are displayed in Figure 3.6 and Table 3.2 (see Table 3.5 for individual court detail).

MICHIGAN COURT OF CLAIMS

The jurisdiction of the Court of Claims, except as otherwise provided by law, extends over claims and demands against the State or any of its departments, commissions, boards, institutions, arms or agencies, except those arising from line-of-duty injuries to State employees. Claimants may bring suit in the Court of Claims provided the claim is $1,000 or more. The State Court Administrative Board is vested with discretionary authority in claims under $1,000.

The Court of Claims is a function of the 30th Judicial Circuit Court in Ingham County.

Court of Claims Goals

The goals of the Court of Claims for 1992 are:

- Reduce the number and age of pending cases by following the implemented delay reduction plan and by continuing to apply recognized caseflow management techniques to bring them in line with the Supreme Court recommended case processing time standards.
- Continue early setting of Mediation and Trial dates to occur soon after expiration of the discovery period.
- An intense review and evaluation of mediation and settlement activity to expedite settlement and encourage acceptance of mediation determinations by the Attorney General's Office.
- Continue to expand the use of automation in docketing, scheduling, and tracking of Court of Claims cases and in generation of statistical information for reporting purposes.
- Conduct status conferences by support staff to determine pending issues in single-business tax cases.

Court of Claims Activities

In 1993, two judges conducted special trial dockets for Court of Claims cases. Ninety-two percent (92.0%) of the cases scheduled were disposed, either through settlement or by trial. Special trial dockets continue to be an effective tool in reducing the Court of Claims caseload.

Approximately one hundred and twenty (120) single-business tax cases against the Michigan Department of the Treasury were filed in 1993, continuing a trend started in 1989. These cases were administratively closed pending appellate review.

Assistant Attorneys General continue to serve as mediators on other civil cases not involving the Court of Claims. This has generated a greater understanding of the mediation process and increased its effectiveness. Settlement rates have improved but continue below the rate for regular civil cases.

Mediation continues to be used extensively as shown in Table 3.7. Although not a high percentage of cases filed, this figure does represent approximately two-thirds of those cases that remain in the 30th Circuit Court and which survive to the mediation stage. Approprate Court of Claims cases were referred to the Labor Relations mediation panels, and Assistant Attorneys General served as mediators on this panel for cases not involving the Court of Claims.

Referrals to Mediation	193	147	217	195	176
Percentage of Filed Cases	37.5%	28.2%	24.9%	30.7%	32.6

The Court continues the application of caseflow management techniques to Court of Claims cases to bring them in line with the Supreme Court recommended case processing time standards. The Court also continues its efforts to determine the status of Court of Claims cases consolidated with cases in other circuit courts.

Table 3.8 displays the caseload summary for the year 1993. The total caseload decreased 12.9% in 1993, the number of dispositions decreased by 18.6%, and the number of pending cases decreased by 2..

NOTE: SUPPORT IS CHILD AND/OR SPOUSAL

FRIEND OF THE COURT

The Friend of the Court office was created by statute in 1919. There is at least one Friend of the Court for each circuit court. The Friend of the Court has the following duties according to law: (1) To investigate, report and make recommendations to the court regarding custody, visitation and support issues, (2) To provide mediation as another way of settling disagreements over custody and visitation of children, (3) To collect, record, and distribute all support payments ordered by the court and, (4) To enforce all custody, visitation, and support orders entered by the court.

In 1993 949.3 million in child and spousal support was collected by the Friends of the Court (see Figure 3.9). This represents an increase of $53.9 million from 1992 and an increase of $234.8 million from 1989.

In 1993 $186.8 million (19.7%) in support collections were for cases involving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) recipients, while $762.5 million (80.3%) in support collections were for non-AFDC recipient cases (see Figure 3.10). Interception of State and Federal tax refunds of delinquent payers resulted in collections of over $29.2 million.

Friend of the Court offices generated $76.4 million in revenue in 1993---$6.5 million for the Friend of the Court Funds (8.5%) and $69.9 million (91.5%) for county general funds (see Figure 3.11).

The Friend of the Court Fund was created by the Legislature in 1983 as a part of the Friend of the Court reform legislation. Fees collected for services provided by the Friend of the Court prior to entry of judgment in divorce cases and incentive payments received from the state for collection of child support in AFDC recipient cases are earmarked for this fund.

Statutory service fees for collecting child support, federal incentive payments for collection of child support, and Cooperative Reimbursement payments from contractual agreements with the Office of Child Support of the Department of Social Services are returned to the county general fund.

The Friend of the Court caseload for 1993 was 751,432 (see Figure 3.12). This represents an increase of 2.1% (15,298) from 1991. A Friend of the Court case is a domestic relations case in which the Friend of the Court currently is providing or may be required to provide services relating to child custody and visitation, and collection and enforcement of support obligations. Friend of the Court staff decreased from 1,497 in 1992 to 1,426 in 1993.

In 1993, Friends of the Court filed 21,884 petitions to modify court orders pertaining to custody, visitation, and support. Support related matters accounted for the majority of the petitions filed. The breakdown is illustrated in Table 3.9.

PROBATE COURT

There is a probate court in each Michigan county with the exception of ten counties which have consolidated to form five probate court districts. Each district has one judge, and each of the remaining counties have one or more judges depending in large part on the population and caseload within the county.

The probate court is a court of original jurisdiction. It exercises exclusive jurisdiction in such matters as juvenile delinquency, neglect, abuse, and adoption proceedings. Another major function is the court's supervision of "probating" of wills and of the administration of estates and trusts of deceased persons by personal representatives.

The probate court also hears cases pertaining to condemnation of land, guardianships and the commitment for hospital care of mentally ill persons, the mentally handicapped, and addicted persons.

The probate court's juvenile division, commonly known as juvenile court, handles cases of families and children under the age of 17 who are delinquent or neglected and abused.

Probate judges are elected on a nonpartisan ballot for six-year terms, subject to the same requirements as other judges. The Legislature sets their salaries, which may be supplemented by counties.

Court Activities - Probate Division

In 1993, 79,130 new cases were filed in probate court (exclusive of juvenile matters). This represents an increase of 4,644 (6.2%) cases from the 74,486 new cases filed the previous year. Supervised and independent estates, guardianships, conservatorships, and mentally ill petitions constitute most of the new probate cases (see Figure 4.1). Between 1992 and 1993 escheated property filings increased by 62.3%, independent decedent estates increased by 5.7%, and mentally ill petitions increased by 27.2%.

In addition to new cases, the probate courts reported 70,285 activities, or a decrease of 4.3% from 1992 (see Figure 4.2). Trust registration and wills for safekeeping (25,559), assignments of property under $5,000 (7,087), acknowledgments of paternity (27,187), change of name (5,453), and inheritance tax (2,804) formed the largest groups of activities.

The average number of new estate division cases filed per probate judge in 1993 was 739.5 and the average number of reported activities per judge was 656.9 (exclusive of juvenile caseload). Table 4.1 displays the average number of filings per judge for each probate region in Michigan (see Table 4.5 for individual court information including juvenile division). There has been a gradual increase in probate court filings over the last several years (see Figure 4.3). The five year history of probate court estate division filings by region is displayed in Table 4.2 (see Table 4.6 for individual court trends).

Table 4.1: Average Number Of Estate Division Filings Per Probate Judge By Region, 1993

Region III	9,333	25	373.3
Region IV	5,396	29	186.1

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of judges to a court or the temporary assignment of a court's judge(s) to another court. Furthermore, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices, travel to multiple court locations, etc. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

At the end of 1993 there were 192,608 cases pending in probate court (see Table 4.3 and Figure 4.4). This represents a change of 6.0% from 1992. Of the pending cases, 39.0% involved guardians and an additional 9.7% involved guardians of developmentally disabled persons. Supervised decedent estates comprised 17.3% of the pending cases, independent decedent estates comprised 12.2% of the cases, and conservators accounted for 15.9%. The remaining cases concerned inter vivos trusts, testamentary trusts, and escheated property. Detailed probate court estate division caseload information is presented in Table 4.8.

Court Activities - Juvenile Division

In 1993 there were 90,496 new juvenile petitions filed in probate court (original and supplemental). Of the new filings 58.2% were for criminal statute and ordinance violations, 10.4% were for status violations, 19.7% were for traffic offenses, and 11.8% were for child protective proceedings (see Table 4.4 and Figure 4.5). The total caseload (beginning pending plus new petitions) for the juvenile division in 1993 was 117,527.

The activities of the juvenile division associated with the caseload were considerable. There were 29,895 preliminary inquiries, 27,275 preliminary hearings, 23,169 pretrials,23,381 pleas and admissions of no contest, 7,211 bench trials, 357 jury trials, 21,932 original disposition hearings, 27,655 disposition review hearings, and 10,012 progress review hearings. See Table 4.5 for detailed information on court activities.

DISTRICT COURT

District Court, with which citizens have contact more than any other court, has exclusive jurisdiction of all civil litigation up to $10,000 and handles garnishments, eviction proceedings, land contract and mortgage foreclosures, and other proceedings. In the criminal field, district court handles all misdemeanors where punishment does not exceed one year, including arraignment, setting and acceptance of bail, trial and sentencing, and conducts preliminary examinations in felony cases.

A small claims division for civil cases up to $1,750 is provided in district court. In these cases litigants agree to waive their right to a jury, rules of evidence, representation by a lawyer, and the right to appeal from the district judge's decision. If either party objects, the case will be heard by the general civil division of the district court.

District judges may appoint magistrates. Magistrates may set bail and accept bond in criminal matters; accept guilty pleas; and sentence for traffic, motor carrier, and snowmobile violations and dog, game, and marine law violations. The magistrate may also issue arrest and search warrants authorized by the prosecutor or municipal attorney. Attorney magistrates may hear small claims cases. Magistrates may, at the direction of the chief judge, perform other duties allowed by statute.

District judges are elected for six-year terms on nonpartisan ballots, under the same requirements as circuit judges. The legislature sets their salaries, which may be supplemented by local governments.

District Court Activities

In 1993 there were 2,807,596 new cases filed in district courts. This represents a decrease of 103,394 filings or 4% from the previous year, which is largely accounted for by a decrease in traffic filings. Of new filings, 75.3% were traffic related, 14.5% concerned civil issues, and 10.2% concerned criminal issues (see Figure 5.1).

Criminal filings decreased by 6,617 or -2.3% between 1992 and 1993. OUIL's are included in the traffic category below. Of the 285,582 criminal cases filed in 1993, 74.2% were misdemeanor offenses and 25.8% were felony offenses (see Figure 5.2). Between 1992 and 1993, felony cases decreased by 4.8% (-3,625) and misdemeanor cases decreased by 1.4% (-2,992).

Traffic case filings decreased by 87,469 or 4.0% between 1992 and 1993. Of the 2,113,633 traffic cases filed in 1993, 73.5% were civil infractions. 23.7% were misdemeanors, 2.6% were OUIL/OWL misdemeanors, and 0.2% were OUIL/OWL felony (see Figure 5.3). Traffic misdemeanor cases decreased by 4.3% (-22,351) while civil infraction cases decreased by 3.9% (-62,846).

Civil case filings decreased 9,668, from 417,689 in 1992 to 408,381 in 1993, for a decrease of 2.2%. Of these filings, 37.6% were general civil cases, 35.4% were summary proceedings cases, and 27.0% were small claims cases (see Figure 5.4). General civil matters decreased by 5.6% (-9,164), small claims decreased by 3.4% (-3,830), and summary proceedings increased by 2.6% (3,686) from the previous year.

In 1993 an average of 10,840.1 new cases per judge were filed in district courts. Table 5.1 displays the average number of filings per district judge for 1993 by region (see Table 5.4 for individual court information).

The averages for new filings per judge do not reflect the impact of the temporary assignments of a court's judge(s) to another court. Further, the averages do not reflect the impact of varying administrative workload requirements including such matters as supervision of multi-site offices and travel to multiple court locations. Therefore, great care should be exercised in the use or analysis of these averages.

Between 1989 and 1993 the number of cases filed in district court varied from 2,985,519 to 2,807,596 for a decrease of 177,923 cases or 6.0% (see Figure 5.5). The number of cases filed by region for the years 1989 through 1993 are displayed in Table 5.2 (see Table 5.5 for individual court information).

MUNICIPAL COURT

Municipal court jurisdiction is limited to claims not exceeding $1,500 in civil cases. Criminal traffic case jurisdiction is the same as in District Court. Only a few a municipalities have chosen to retain a municipal court rather than to change to the district court.

Municipal judges must be lawyers, residents, and electors of their municipalities. They are paid by the municipalities and are elected for six year terms.

Municipal Court Activities

In 1993 there were 30,427 new cases filed in municipal courts, a decrease of 2,723 (8.2%) from the 33,150 cases filed in 1992. The majority of the 1993 new filings were traffic cases (89.5%) while 7.9% were criminal cases and 2.6% were civil cases (see Figure 5.7). Between 1992 and 1993 criminal filings decreased by 18.7% (-552), traffic filings decreased by 7.3% (-2,154), and civil filings decreased by 2.1% (-17).

Of the 2,406 criminal filings in 1993, 80.5% (1,937) were misdemeanors and 19.5% (469) were felonies (see Figure 5.8). In 1993, felony filings decreased by 20.9% (-124) from 1992 and misdemeanor filings decreased by 18.1% (-428).

In 1993 there were 27,242 traffic related cases filed. Civil infraction violations accounted for 77.7% (21,170) of the traffic filings while misdemeanor offenses accounted for 20.5% (5,573) of the traffic filings, while 1.7% were OUIL/OWL misdemeanor cases and 0.1% were OUIL/OWL felony cases (see Figure 5.9). Misdemeanor traffic offenses increased by 0.9% (50) from 1992 while civil infraction traffic offenses decreased by 9.5% (-2,231).

Of the 779 civil cases filed in 1993, 64.6% (503) were general civil cases, 17.7% (138) were small claims, and 17.7% (138) involved summary proceedings (see Figure 5.10). Between 1992 and 1993 general civil offenses increased by 8.2% (38), small claims decreased by 28.5% (-55), and summary cases remained at 138.

In 1993 there was an average of 5,071 new filings for each judge in municipal court. This represents a 8.2% (-454) decrease from the 5,525 filings per judge in 1992.

At the end of 1993 there were 2,712 cases pending in municipal court or a decrease of 33.4% (-1,135) from 1992 (see Table 5.7). Of these, 24.0% (545) were traffic cases, 59.4% (1,348) were criminal cases, and 16.5% (375) were civil cases (see Figure 5.11). Detailed municipal court caseload information is presented in Table 5.8.

STATE COURT ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

According to the Michigan Constitution, Article VI, Section 3, "...the Supreme Court shall appoint an administrator of the courts and other assistants of the Supreme Court as may be necessary to aid in the administration of the courts of the State. The administrator shall perform administrative duties assigned by the court. Under the general direction of the Supreme Court, the State Court Administrative Office (SCAO) is responsible in assisting in the administration of justice in Michigan's trial courts. The State Court Administrator is also responsible for advising the Supreme Court, as well as the executive and legislative branches, on matters relating to management of the State's One Court of Justice."

The State Court Administrative Office has organizational goals that provide the foundation for all of its functions. "Providing Management Assistance to the Judiciary," "Analyzing and Formulating Policy," and "Improving Existing and Developing New Management Information Systems," are the first three. These goals are achieved in a number of ways.

The SCAO provides managment assistance to over 600 judges of 243 trial courts and trial court staff on matters relating to trial court management. This function is inherent in the role of the State Court Administrative Office and consumes a majority of the resources of the State Court Administrative Office.

The SCAO collects, analyzes, and publishes management information regarding operations of trial courts. The State Court Administrative Office must provide rapid analyses of Legislative and Executive branch policy initiatives in terms of their administrative impact on the judiciary. This information is used by the Supreme Court and State Court Administrator in evaluating the performance of Michigan courts, making decisions regarding operations and necessary changes in operations, and regarding required resources.

The State Court Administrative Office also assists in the evaluation of court rules and legislation affecting administration of courts, and proposes changes to rules and statutes where appropriate.

SCAO, Office of System Management (OSM) advises and assists trial courts in the selection, acquisition, installation, programming, and operation of automated data processing systems. OSM is the leading provider of automated caseflow management systems. OSM maintains on-line data processing services for District and Probate Courts and provides software development and enhancement services for all trial courts. The OSM has developed and distributed systems for independent operation on minicomputers and microcomputers for Circuit, District, and Probate Courts. The OSM also supports the needs of the Supreme Court and the State Court Administrative Office.

At the direction of the Supreme Court, the State Court Administrative Office has implemented a program to focus on the implementation of recommendations of the Citizens Commission to Improve Michigan Courts and the Racial/Ethnic and Gender Task Forces regarding access to courts. The SCAO continues to work on implementation of the recommendations set forth in the reports of the Citizens Commission and the Task Forces.

The State Court Administrative Office has developed and continues to work on forms and instructions that facilitate access to courts for pro se litigants.

The Tele-Court program, established in 1993, provides general information on a variety of court topics.

In 1990, the Commission of the Courts in the 21st Century was created by the Legislature to "study and recommend changes in structure and procedure to maximize the resources and efficiency of Michigan's judicial system". The Commission was composed of three members of the House, three members of the Senate, three public members appointed by the Speaker of the House, three public members appointed by the Governor, three members appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and three members appointed by the State Bar of Michigan: with the Chief Justice designating the chairperson from among the appointees of the Supreme Court and State Bar. The Commission was directed to focus on two major issues: 1) jurisdiction (the jurisdiction of trial courts and Court of Appeals) and 2) court administration (public access to the courts; gender, racial, ethnic and handicapper bias in the courts; the role and structure of the Judicial Tenure Commission; the role of the State Court Administrator; and reducing the costs to litigants.) The Commission issued its final report in December, 1990. In 1992 & 1993, the State Court Administrative Office implemented a specially funded program to pilot test recommendations of the Commission.

The Friend of the Court Bureau function was placed in the State Court Administrative Office by the Friend of The Court Act, 1983 PA 294. The SCAO provides management assistance to Circuit Judges and Friend of the Court offices on domestic relations matters, and is responsible for the development and updating of child support and visitation guidelines, development of recommended procedures for Friend of the Court offices, training of local trial court personnel, publication of information regarding child support and friend of the court matters for attorneys, litigants, and the general public, and staff support to the Friend of the Court Advisory Committee.

The Foster Care Review Board program was established in 1980 as a pilot program to be administered by the State Court Administrative Office. The Legislature in 1986 enacted 1986 PA 159, which provides specific criteria for the creation of local foster care review boards. In 1989, the Legislature enacted Act 74 of 1989 which extended the program indefinitely. Local foster care review boards, composed of volunteer citizens, review efforts by the Juvenile courts, Department of Social Services, and private children's agencies to establish and carry out plans for permanent placement of children in foster care. The program uses data collected at the local level to determine what system modifications are required to ensure the quality and consistency of placement services for children statewide.

The Community Dispute Resolution program, created by 1988 PA 260, was established to provide mediation, conciliation, and other forms of voluntary dispute resolution as an alternative to the judicial process. During 1989, the State Court Administrator established a seventeen-member Advisory Commitee to provide recommendations for program implementation and evaluation. This Committee is comprised of professionals working in the field of dispute resolution, including judges, educators, and community dispute program directors.

During 1993 the Community Dispute Resolution Program extended its outreach to provide technical assistance to jurisdictions without community mediation programs in order to assist these communities in establishing alternative dispute resolution programs and in some cases developing regional efforts. In addition, the Community Dispute Resolution Program successfully encouraged state agencies to refer complaints or disputes to mediation to its local programs for resolution.

The Felony Sentencing Guidelines project is administered by the State Court Administrative Office with the advice of the Sentencing Guidelines Advisory Committee. Guidelines for use by trial judges in sentencing persons convicted of felonies are formulated based on statutory sentencing practices. Trial judges who deviate from the guidelines must indicate their reasons "on the record". Data regarding the sentencing of convicted felons is collected and analyzed by the State Court Administrative Office for review in aggregate by the Sentencing Guidelines Advisory Committee.

Regional Offices of the State Court Administrative Office are located in Detroit, Lansing, Mt. Pleasant, and Gaylord. For trial courts located within their respective regions, they provide technical, administrative, and management assistance; facilitate communication among trial courts and between trial courts and the State Court Administrative Office and Supreme Court; implement policies of the Supreme Court and the State Court Administrative Office; oversee the management of caseflow and the administration of judicial assignments; resolve disputes between trial courts and their funding units; respond to complaints from other agencies and the public regarding trial court operations; and advise the State Court Administrator on matters relating to judicial administration. The Region I office (Detroit) also manages the Docket Control Center of the Detroit Recorder's Court. The regional program is a key element in the implementation of the Supreme Court's program to improve Michigan Courts.

The State Court Administrative Office also collects and analyzes trial court workload and other statistics; oversees the distribution of monies from the Drunk Driving Caseflow Assistance Fund, the Drug Case Information Management Fund, and the State Court Fund; advises the Supreme Court on administrative matters; provides technical personnel and labor relations advice to trial courts; operates a court reporting and recording certification program; sponsors and manages judicial conferences; develops and maintains manuals for trial courts; develops forms for use in trial courts; and performs other functions relating to the administration of the courts.
